DOESTICKS IN BOSTON.—The famous "P. esticks" has furnished the New York Picayune an account of his visit to Boston, from which the following extracts high-pressure speed about a garden-walk of a showery afternoon, and being perpetually turned back when they get to the edge, and compelled to cross each other's trail in innumerable directions, would, if the ground were soft and their every footstep plainly visible, draw on the garden-walk aforesaid a tolerably accurate map of the city of Boston. It is crookeder than nine acres of ram's borns, and has more corners. than nine acres of ram's horns, and has more corners than a cord of cross-cut saws.

You see your friend, and you call out, "Jones. wait a minute," and you start to see Jones, thinking Misguided man! far-distant Jones! You climb nine hills, and turn ninety corners before you get within hailing distance of Jones again.

The streets look as if they had been made somewhere else, and dumped here in a huge tangle; and nobody had never taken the trouble to straighten them out again. It looks as if somebody had been hailding a lot of cities by contrast, and the ich building a lot of cities by contract, and the job hadn't come out even, and he had thrown down his remnants of streets and odds ends of alleys, and little snipped off bits of lapes and avenues, and called it Boston. If any street in the town should be cut a straght mile in any direction, it would go through a dozen private parlors and forty-five public music halls. In fact Boston looks as if the first-rate material for an excellent city had been melted and poured through a seive on a side hill and left to cool.

THE HOUSEHOLD " GOOD NIGHT."-" Good night !" A loud, clear voice from the stairs said that it was Tommy. "Dood night!" murmur a little something from the trundle-bed—a little something that we call Jenny, that filled a large place in the center of one or two pretty large hearts. "Good night!" lisps a lit-tie fellow in a plaid rifle dress, who was named Willie about six years ago.

"Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep; If I should die before I w-a-k-e"— and the small bundle in the trundle-bed has dropped off to sleep, but the broken prayer may go up sooner than many long petitions that set out a great while

And so it was "good night" all around the home-stead; and very sweet music it made, too, in the twilight, and very pleasant melody it makes now, as we think of it, for it was not yesterday, nor the day before, but a long time ago—so long that Tommy is Thomas Somebody, Esq., and has forgotten that he ever was a boy, and wore what the bravest and rich-est of us can never were but once if we try, the first est of us can never wear but once, if we try—the first

THE CTHER SIDE.—Once in a happy home, a sweet, bright baby died, when the children gathered around their mother, all sitting very sorrowful, Alice, the eldest, said:

"Mother, you took all the care of the baby while she was here, and you carried and held her in your arms all the while she was ill; now, mother, who took her on the other side?"

"Jesus met her there," answered the mother.

"It is He who took little children in his arms to bless them, and said, 'Suffer them to come unto me, and forbid them not, ar of such is the kingdom of

To the Farmer and Dealers in Agricultural Implements.

1500 CAST STEEL CALIFORNIA DEEP TILLER OR QUEEN OF THE WEST PLOWS.

The mould board, the landside and shear are manufactured of cast steel, making the plow run much lighter than any plow ever used in this country. Also, GANG PLOWS, CULTIVATORS, HARROWS, PANN
In addition to what I manufacture, I shall constantly be receiving implements from the best makers of the Eastern and Western States, amongst which are Western States, amongst which are 500 CINCINNATI EAGLE STEEL & ROVER PLOWS,

a shipment of which has just arrived. These plows stand, in point of true merit and worth, altogether higher than any others in the great agricultural State of Ohio.

Please favor me with a call and see for yourself, and be con vinced that I am publishing no humbur, but simply facts as they are, and that our young State can within itself already provide the farmer with implements inferior to none now in use.

Any article I manufacture will have all the latest improvements, and be finished in a workmanlike manner.

All kinds of agricultural implements and machines repaired on short notice, and in the best manner, and on reasonable terms.
